Freeq is having a belated birthday party and you're invited!

A promotional poster for 'Freeq's Birthday Party'. At the top, a black banner contains the text '14TH NOVEMBER 2009 · MOOG · NOON TIL 11AM' in white. Below this, the main title 'FREEQ'S BIRTHDAY PARTY!' is written in large, bold, white letters on a black background, with the word 'BELATED' in smaller white letters above it. A subtitle in orange reads 'Nottingham's finest creative magazine is throwing one bad ass party to celebrate its birthday and you're invited!'. The poster features a central image of a brown dog wearing headphones and DJing on a turntable. To the left of the dog, text in orange and yellow lists the lineup: '6PM - 11AM BASEMENT BOOGALOO (ED COTTON AND NICK SHAW) ALEX TRASKA (MY HOUSE YOUR HOUSE) SUPINE (AUDIOPHILE)'. Below this, it says 'NOON - 6PM NOTTINGHAM CRAFT MAFIA LEANS TO GRAFFITI SESSIONS PHOTO EXHIBITION LIVE ILLUSTRATION'. To the right of the dog, the text 'free drinks' is written in orange, with a white rectangular box below it. At the bottom right, there is a small, tilted text box that says 'tickets only £3 limited numbers available book early online at www.freeqmagazine.com afternoon session completely free'.

14th November at Nottingham's best Out of Town Bar 2009 - Moog, sees Freeq magazine officially celebrate its first birthday.

We've got an amazing day and night planned starting at noon with Nottingham Craft Mafia craft fair plus live illustration and graffiti and a photography exhibition. Then at 6pm it's free food and drinks (first round on us) and Supine from Audiophile mixing some reggae grooves until Alex Traska [MyHouse YourHouse] funks the evening up from 8pm and then the legendary Basement Boogaloo residents Ed Cotton and Nick Shaw see us through to the small hours with the funky house that the Boogaloo brand is famous for.

All this for just £3 - with free food and a drink on us (get there early!) plus the afternoon craft fair and arty stuff is completely free!
