Rain? What rain? It's that time of year again and come rain or shine we'll be backstage bringing you all sorts of news and updates from the world's biggest music and arts festival.

First up just to whet your appetite (excuse the pun) we can announce a new venue this year; The Beat Hotel. Think Hawaii meets Rising Damp and you'll have the decor nailed. It's chintz, it's surfy but most of all it's cool. I'm getting A Guy Called Gerald classic Hot Lemonade blasting out the soundsystem and jigging in the mud, it's a cool way to get the weekend rolling with a couple of cocktails and catching up with mates.

Keep checking back for more news and updates over the next few days.
